Alicia Vikander

GET HER LOOK

The Swedish Oscar winner, 32, rarely wears makeup on her own time so when she hits the red carpet – with the help of her longtime makeup artist, Kelly Cornwell – she leans into natural makeup, with a subtle veil of glamour. The Tomb Raider star says she's plagued with dry skin, so Kelly always begins with a hydrating base, either an emollient primer or a five-minute face mask. Here, Alicia's standout feature is her smouldering cat-eyes. Her warm-toned burgundy-brown eyeshadow looks incredible when smoked out, creating a diffused line. The supporting cast is strategically placed highlighter, glossy pink lipstick and an effortless ponytail with a face-framing braid. ES
